Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern

Dear Sir or Madam,

Ms. Carmen Moles studies Master of Business Administration degree at Laurea University of Applied Sciences in the degree program of Service Innovation and Design. The aim of the programme is to provide students with multidisciplinary knowledge in service innovation and design through advanced studies of different service theories and their implications for service innovation and design practice. The programme brings students to the forefront of recent development in the service innovation and design field.

The foundation for competence development at Laurea is an enriching community. The community is an environment of shared expertise in which the learner's role is to act as a specialist, a developer and an agent exerting influence. The learners develop their competence by interacting with their environment and their sector. Resources for competence development include a learning culture that favours creativity and goal-oriented action, expert guidance and instruction, as well as a learning environment that supports competence development.

I hereby confirm that Carmen Moles has taken care of her responsibilities during the studies in an outstanding way in every respect. She has completed all the courses with excellent results. She is talented, diligent, reliable, and has a great deal of creative initiative. She is an active team member who shares her knowledge, experience and thoughts, but is also an active listener and ready to build a project towards the common goals. She is perfectly suitable for facilitating workshops and designing and implementing projects related to innovation.

Sincerely,

Virpi Kaartti
